STIPULATION OF FACTS

The parties hereby stipulate that, if this case had proceeded to trial, the Government would have proven the following beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. On June 9, 2016, Defendant Randy L. Rohrbaugh was an inmate at the Federal Correctional Institution at Greenville, Illinois, in Bond County, within the Southern District of Illinois.

2. On the above date, a correctional officer was walking the defendant to the Lieutenant's office. While being escorted, the defendant handed an item to another inmate that he passed. The correctional officer asked the other inmate for the item that the defendant had been in the defendant's possession. The item was a sharpened metal rod, approximately seven (7) inches long, hidden inside the body of a pen and covered by a pen cap.

3. A seven (7) inch long sharpened metal rod is a prohibited object for a federal inmate to possess.

4. This stipulation of facts is intended only to provide the Court with a sufficient foundation to accept the defendant's guilty plea and is not necessarily an exhaustive account of the defendant's criminal activity.
